Day 2

Prague

This morning your guide will meet you in your hotel lobby for a half-day of touring the extraordinary museums of the Castle District and Hradčany. The original castle (called Hradčany, pronounced Hra-tcha-nee) was founded in the early 14th Century, but it was rebuilt many times over the ages. As it is much easier to walk down the steep Castle Hill, you will want to start at the top of the hill and the extraordinary Strahov Monastery. When you first arrive at the monastery you will almost certainly be taken by the sweeping views it has to offer over all of Prague and the Vltava River. The monastery was founded in 1140 and was one of the wealthiest and most prestigious of its time. This wealth enabled the monks to create the greatest and most ornate library of the Middle Ages and it remains completely intact today.

Exeter International Extraordinary Experience

VIP visit to the Strahov Monastery. Here, you will be invited into the two main halls of the library (the Philosophical Hall and the Theological Hall). These two halls are always viewed by the public through the narrow doorways at the end of each room, but you will be allowed to enter the rooms to walk alone among the ancient books and artifacts.

Included today will also be a visit to the Prague Castle complex. Here Maria Theresa commissioned the famous architect of the Schönbrunn Palace in Vienna, Nicholas Pacassi, to design the interior of the complex. This castle, designed with courtyards inside of courtyards, is a fascinating view into the lives of the Czech monarchy. You will almost certainly want to step into the towering and wonderfully Neo-Gothic St. Vitus Cathedral inside the complex.

Your day will end in the Malá Strana or Little Quarter, which is best known for the Wallenstein Palace and Church of St. Nicholas. Also, it is here in the Malá Strana that you will find many charming restaurants and unique shops full of Bohemian glass and the marionettes that are so famous in Prague.

The Rocco Forte Augustine just opened in May of 2009 in one of Prague's most interesting historical buildings. The 101-room property has been created from a complex of five buildings, most of which are historical monuments. The largest and most important structure is St. Thomas's Monastery, which dates to the 1400s. Key historic features such as cloistered terraces, wooden ceilings, wine vaults and stone arches have been incorporated into the hotel design. Decor is a unique mix of contemporary and traditional and this hotel really gives guests a sense of place.

Classic Rooms: Classic rooms are very well appointed offering 377 square feet. These rooms have been designed to reflect the monastic history of the hotel and combine contemporary furniture and design with traditional features. The rooms have views of either the tranquil Monastery courtyard, inner courtyards, the Sundial Garden or of the City. Some of the rooms have high ceilings or original wooden beams. Bedding is either one Queen, one King or two Twin Beds.

The Old Town location puts guests just steps from Old Town Square, all the top theaters and Prague's best shopping and restaurants.; The hotel is located in a 15th century palace and room sizes, along with ceiling heights, are quite generous. Guests will find an excellent restaurant, Le Grill, featuring Czech and international cuisine, along with a beautiful bar with Neo-Baroque ceilings. In the summer, the garden to the rear of the hotel is the perfect place to spend the evening after a long day of touring.
